

Margaret S. Albaugh, a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the Plaintiff, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

Q. Will you state your full name, please, Mrs. Albaugh.

A. Margaret Stup Albaugh.

Q. Where do you live?

A. Urbana, Maryland.

Q. What is your age?

A. Forty-seven.

Q. You are related to the late John C. Kidd?

A. Granddaughter.

Q. When and where did your grandfather die?

A. In Urbana, Maryland, on November 30, 1898.

Q. At the time of his death, did he own any real estate, to your knowledge?

A. Yes.

Q. Will you describe what property he owned at that time?

A. Well, he owned the property in Urbana, Maryland, and a farm that is just about a mile outside of Urbana, on the Ijamsville Road.

Q. I show you a certified copy of deed from John F. Williams to John C. Kidd, dated June 9, 1877, recorded in Liber T.G. No. 7, folio 675, one of the Land Records of Frederick County, and certified copy of deed from Columbus W. Windsor and wife to John C. Kidd, dated March 7, 1894, and recorded in Liber J.L.J. No. 5, folio 597, one of the Land Records of the County aforesaid. Will you examine these deeds and state whether or not they correctly describe the real estate of which your grandfather died seized and possessed located in Urbana?

A. Yes, they do.

Certified copies of deeds marked "Exhibits Nos. 1 and 2" filed with the Examiner as evidence.

Q. I now show you certified copy of deed and agreement from Charles W. Kidd, et. al., to Ann M. Kidd, dated January 21, 1899, and recorded in Liber D.H.H. No. 3, folio 305, one of the Land Records of the County aforesaid. Will you please examine this deed and state who the parties to said deed are.

A. The parties of the first part are all of the children of John C. Kidd and their wives and husbands, as the case may be. The party of the second part is my grandmother, wife of the late John C. Kidd.
